

Organisational and Visitor Rules of the Sports Event

English translation for information. In case of any discrepancy, the Slovak version prevails.

ČSOB Winter Series – 5 December 2026

Article I – Basic provisions

(1) BE COOL, s.r.o., registered office Krajinská 37, 821 06 Bratislava, company ID 35 75 14 52, as the organiser of the Event, issues, pursuant to Section 6 of Act No. 1/2014 Coll. on the organisation of public sports events and on amendments to certain acts, these Organisational and Visitor Rules of the sports event ČSOB Winter Series – 5 December 2026 (the “Event”) organised by BE COOL, s.r.o. (the “Organiser”).

The Event is a public sports event open to the public, held for participants on the basis of their registration with the Organiser, in public spaces – roads temporarily used for the staging and organisation of the Event located near Aupark in Bratislava according to the approved course map of the Event published at bratislavamarathon.sk (the “Event website”).

(2) The purpose of the Organisational and Visitor Rules of the Event is to regulate the safety and protection of the health, property and environment of the participants of the Event and details related to the attendance of spectators at the Event.

(3) These Organisational and Visitor Rules of the Event set binding rules of conduct for participants at the Event.

(4) Every participant at the Event must comply with the obligations, guidelines and instructions:

- a) set out in these Organisational Rules of the Event,
- b) set out in the information leaflet issued for the Event and in the race regulations published on the Event website, which are available at the participants' check-in,
- c) given by safety signs at the venue of the Event,
- d) given by members of the stewarding service, members of the private security service, members of the Police Force and the Municipal (local) Police who ensure traffic management on public roads and the protection of public order at the Event,
- e) given by members of the emergency medical service, fire brigades and other rescue services.

(5) A participant of the Event is a natural person who, because of the Event, is present at the venue of the Event or in its vicinity, in particular a spectator, a person taking part in the Event in connection with sporting activity, a person taking part in connection with the organisation of the Event, a person taking part in connection with the performance of their profession (a member of the Police Force of the Slovak Republic, the Fire and Rescue Service, a paramedic, journalist, photographer, member of a TV crew, radio or other media, etc.), or an accredited person.

(6) Participants take part in the Event at their own risk.

(7) The Organiser of the Event is liable for damage to the health and property of a participant of the Event only if it was caused by the Organiser's failure to comply with the legal regulations of the Slovak Republic, or by the intentional or negligent conduct of natural persons who are in an employment or other contractual relationship with the Organiser, and the participant reported the damage to the Organiser.

(8) The chief organiser organises and manages the organisation of the Event and ensures the performance of tasks according to the Organiser's instructions. The safety manager is a professionally qualified steward appointed by the Organiser to organise and manage the stewarding service and to prepare, manage, implement and evaluate safety measures at the venue of the Event. A steward is a natural person designated by the Organiser, wearing a reflective vest with a clear "STEWARD" ("USPORIADATEL") label and a number.

Article II – Powers of the steward

The steward is entitled to

- a) check that only a natural person who is entitled to do so wants to take part in the Event,
- b) check visually, by touch or by technical means whether a natural person entering the premises of the Event carries, including in hand luggage, or wears a firearm, a pyrotechnic product or another object that can make an attack on the body more forceful, alcoholic beverages if the municipality has prohibited the sale, serving or consumption of alcoholic beverages at the event, drugs or psychotropic substances,
- c) refuse or prevent entry to the Event of a natural person who brings into the premises of the Event a firearm, a pyrotechnic product or another object that can make an attack on the body more forceful, alcoholic beverages if the municipality has prohibited the sale, serving or consumption of alcoholic beverages at the Event, drugs or psychotropic substances,
- d) refuse or prevent entry to the Event of a natural person who is clearly under the influence of alcohol, drugs or psychotropic substances,
- e) refuse entry to the Event to a natural person on whom a court has imposed a restriction under probation supervision or on whom the competent authority has imposed a restrictive measure,
- f) draw the attention of participants of the Event to the inappropriateness of their behaviour and require them to stop it if they disturb public order or the peaceful course of the Event,
- g) instruct participants of the Event to leave the Event without reimbursement of the entry fee if, after a warning, they continue to behave inappropriately, disturb public order or disrupt the peaceful course of the Event,
- h) escort participants out of the Event and prohibit their further participation in the Event without reimbursement of the entry fee if they have not obeyed the instruction to leave the Event,
- ch) request proof of identity from a participant of the event in connection with a breach of the participant's obligations, record their details and pass them on to other authorised persons and authorities

Article III – Obligations and prohibitions for participants of the Event

(1) A participant of the Event must

- a) follow the instructions of the Organiser of the Event, the stewarding service, members of the Police Force, the Municipal (local) Police and members of the private security service ensuring the protection of public order at the Event, and refrain from anything that would disturb public order or the proper and peaceful course of the Event,
- b) refrain from consuming alcoholic beverages during the Event if the municipality has prohibited the sale, serving or consumption of alcoholic beverages at the Event, and refrain from consuming drugs and psychotropic substances during the Event,
- c) tolerate acts of the Organiser, a steward, members of the Police Force, the Municipal (local) Police or a member of the private security service related to a breach of the participant's obligations,
- d) after the end of the Event, disperse peacefully and leave the venue of the Event.

(2) Participants of the Event are prohibited from bringing to the Event:

- a) firearms and other weapons and objects that can make an attack on the body more forceful (e.g. daggers, swords, bayonets, knives, sticks, rods, batons, glass bottles, chairs, stands), unless they have the consent of the Organiser of the Event to bring such weapons and objects,
- b) explosives and pyrotechnic products,
- c) sprays, corrosive, flammable and dyeing substances or other substances harmful to health,
- d) alcoholic beverages, if the municipality has prohibited the sale, serving or consumption of alcoholic beverages at the Event,
- e) drugs or psychotropic substances,
- f) racist, vulgar, defamatory banners, leaflets and other promotional materials contrary to good morals,
- g) mechanically powered machines and tools causing noise,
- h) animals,
- i) laser pointers and other objects whose light or other radiation negatively affects participants of the Event, including competing athletes and referees.
- j) attending the event under the influence of alcohol or psychotropic substances is prohibited.

(3) The prohibitions in paragraph 2 (a), (b), (c), (g), (h), (i) and (j) do not apply to natural persons who have the consent of the Organiser of the Event to bring such weapons and objects to the Event.

(4) Participants of the Event are prohibited from

- a) covering their face in a way that prevents their identification if members of the Police Force are carrying out an official intervention against them and a member of the Police Force has asked them to uncover their face,
- b) using the state symbols of foreign states or their predecessors in a disparaging manner or in another manner that may incite disturbance of public order or endanger the proper course of the Event,
- c) uttering and chanting racist, vulgar, defamatory words and slogans contrary to good morals,
- d) entering areas of the Event that are not intended for spectators (visitors) of the Event,
- e) throwing objects endangering the health and safety of participants of the Event in the premises of the Event,
- f) lighting fires and using pyrotechnic products in the premises of the Event,

- g) causing public nuisance,
- h) littering the premises of the Event, including with posters, commercial and advertising notices,
- i) destroying and damaging the premises of the Event and its equipment,
- j) harassing, physically attacking and beating participants of the Event,
- k) selling goods and services without the permission of the Organiser of the Event,
- l) making sound and video recordings of the Event, unless the Organiser of the Event has given the participant permission to do so.

Article IV – Entry and stay of participants at the Event

- (1) Only a natural person who presents a bib or another document entitling them to enter the Event may enter the area in which the Event takes place.
- (2) At the request of a member of the stewarding service, a member of the private security service or a member of the Police Force or the Municipal (local) Police ensuring the protection of public order at the Event, a participant must at any time present a bib or another document entitling them to enter the Event. If they do not have a bib or another document, they must leave the area in which the Event takes place. If they do not do so, they may be escorted out of the Event.

Article V – Removal of participants from the Event

The Organiser, a member of the stewarding service, a member of the private security service or a member of the Police Force or the Municipal (local) Police ensuring the protection of public order at the Event may escort out of the Event, without reimbursement of the entry fee, a participant who:

- a) does not follow the instructions of the Organiser of the Event, the stewarding service, members of the Police Force, the Municipal (local) Police and members of the private security service ensuring the protection of public order at the Event,
- b) disturbs public order or the proper and peaceful course of the Event,
- c) consumes alcoholic beverages during the Event if the municipality has prohibited their sale, serving or consumption at the Event,
- d) consumes drugs or other psychotropic substances during the Event,
- e) refuses to uncover their face when asked to do so by a member of the Police Force,
- f) uses the state symbols of foreign states or their predecessors in a disparaging manner or in another manner that may incite disturbance of public order or endanger the proper course of the Event,
- g) utters and chants racist, vulgar, defamatory words and slogans contrary to good morals, or presents them on banners, posters and the like,
- h) enters areas of the Event that are not intended for spectators (visitors), for example areas intended for competing athletes, members of athletes' support teams, referees and organisers,
- i) throws objects endangering the health and safety of participants of the Event in the premises of the Event,
- j) lights fires and uses pyrotechnic products in the premises of the Event,
- k) causes public nuisance,
- l) litters the premises of the Event (including with posters, commercial and advertising notices),

- m) destroys and damages the premises of the Event and its equipment,
- n) harasses, physically attacks and beats participants of the Event,
- o) sells goods and services without the permission of the Organiser of the Event.

Article VI – Effect

(1) For the rights and obligations of participants of the Event not specifically regulated in these Organisational and Visitor Rules, the relevant provisions of Act No. 1/2014 Coll. on the organisation of public sports events, as amended, apply.

(2) These Organisational and Visitor Rules of the Event take effect on 5 December 2026.

Date: 5 October 2026

Mgr. Jozef Pukalovič, signed

Managing Director

BE COOL, s.r.o.