Insurance:

All participants must have individual health insurance (standard general health insurance with any insurer is sufficient!!!). The organiser accepts no liability for damage to property or health related to travel, stay and participation in the event. Every participant takes part at their own risk and is responsible for their state of health at the start and during the event.

At check-in, every participant must check the health insurance company stated (this also applies when collecting a race pack for another participant). Foreign participants must present a photocopy of the card confirming health insurance for this event. Without this confirmation, the race pack will not be issued, even if the entry fee has been paid.

On the back of the bib, as in the online registration form, you may, at your own discretion, fill in any health information about yourself that you consider appropriate and that may help the organiser if you need treatment during the event. The organiser will use this information only in the event of a runner's health complications and subsequent treatment by the medical and rescue services. If you wish, please add your current health problem, illness, allergy, contact person or any other important information that may help us if you receive medical assistance during or after the run. If anything has changed between registration and check-in, please inform the organisers at check-in.

We recommend that runners have a medical check-up before the start.

The organiser reserves the right to amend and specify in more detail some of the information in these regulations, in particular in view of force majeure circumstances. We also reserve the right to close registration once the participant limit for the event has been reached.

The organiser also reserves the right to cancel or interrupt the event or any of its disciplines in the event of serious danger, in particular war, adverse weather, the spread of an epidemic, the threat of terrorism or another attack endangering the safety of participants, or other unforeseeable force majeure events and circumstances.
